Provisional programme

Booking first come first serve basis subject to availability.

Note: Please read very carefully the above details of Hajj package before making your choice and subsequent booking once booked, you will need to strictly be bounded by the program. "Hajj is not easy at all. The scale of complexities from earlier years though has gradually reduced, it still is not a luxury trip. We are amongst thousands of people and the authorities do a great job but we must expect some hick-ups and hurdles which are part of the process and we need to be prepared for these eventualities and demonstrate patience as good Muslims to maximise the benefits of this lifetime pilgrim." You are asked to note that the company is not responsible for any change, delay or flights cancellation caused by the Air-line.
